From the desk of Father Baier...

This week, the priests of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon gathered together in Newport, Oregon for the annual Convocation. The theme was Embracing the Eucharist in Apostolic Mission. We listened to a speaker, Joshua Danis and had the opportunity to discuss amongst ourselves as well. One of our discussions was what are the fruits of your ministry? In other words, we've been sent out into the Lord's vineyard to work, what are we accomplishing in mission, what do we have to report back to Jesus about the love we are witnessing or the graces we see. It was good to hear what brothers had to say. During these four days of prayer, fellowship, and learning, we celebrated this year's jubilarians. I invite you to join us in praying for these remarkable men—our earthly shepherds celebrating a 25th, 50th, or 60th anniversary of ordination. Please pray for our Jubilarians and for all our priests! As we were celebrating, we received word that Fr. Ken Hume had died that very evening. May he rest in peace. The Archbishop encouraged us and responded to questions from the presbyterate.

Happy 60th Anniversary to:

Fr. Richard Berg, CSC
Fr. Francis Chun
Fr. Kenneth Hume (may he rest in peace)
Fr. Rock Sassano (may he rest in peace)

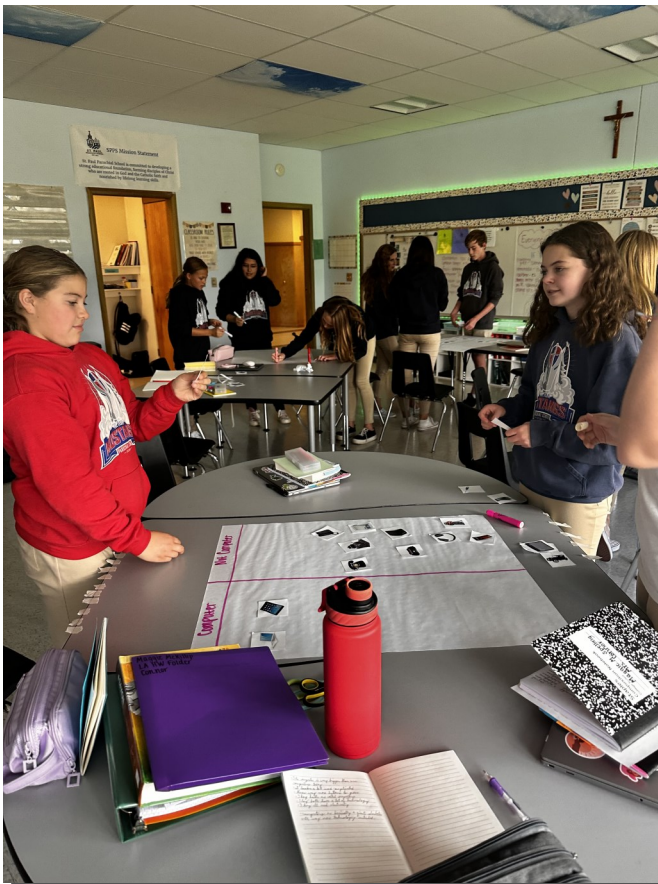

Happy 50th Anniversary to:

Fr. Kevin Clarke, SJ
Fr. James Coleman
Rev. Msgr. Richard Huneger
Fr. Kenneth Olsen
Fr. Charles Zach

Happy 25th Anniversary to:

Fr. Nazario Atukunda
Rev. Msgr. John Cihak
Fr. William Dillard
Fr. Jose Luis Gonzalez
Fr. Jorge Hernandez, OFM
Fr. Francis Njau Fgn, AJ
Fr. Christopher Weekly, SJ

The 7th and 8th grade class has had an amazing start to the year. In science students have been diving deep into how the scientific method works, and they are testing claims made by companies. They also got to look at the design process with a challenge to build the tallest tower, they then had the opportunity to test, reevaluate, and rebuild their tower. In Social Studies we have been learning about why colonists settled where they are did, and what happened after they set up their colonies. In computer science students have begun learning the basic coding language for designing websites.
