From the desk of Father Baier...

I hope you are doing very well this Lent. This Saturday the confirmation students and myself went up to Mt. Angel Abbey where we visited the museum and saw vestments, the world's largest hairball, and many taxidermied animals. We had noon prayer with the monks, and saw the famous Mt. Angel Library. After lunch at Mt. Angel Sausage company, we played soccer on the field and listened to some words from Brother Charles Gonzalez and then returned home.

There was so much more to see, but we can always go back again. It was good to see our youth engaged, laughing, and praying together. I hope to make more outings like this in the months ahead. Thank you to the donors that supplemented the lunch cost and for everyone who chaperoned and participated. Blessings. In Christ,

Fr. Scott Baier

SPPS Classroom Spotlight—Third & Fourth Grade

The third and fourth grade class has been learning about the beatitudes in religion class. Beatitudes were blessings from Jesus at the Sermon on the Mount, and today we look at them as ways to live by, as Christ followers. Last week our class had the opportunity to lead our school morning prayer. Students read each beatitude and then shared the explanation in kid friendly language that the student body could easily understand. One discussion we had was on how we can replace the word “blessed” with “happy”, and by living out the beatitudes in our lives we find a “happy” life in Jesus by following him.
