ANNOUNCEMENTS

Blessings to you this 4th of July! It is good to be with you! I have been very busy getting settled since my final arrival on June 30. Special thanks to those of you who have helped me get started and to organize my things. Being from Vancouver, Washington and most recently from St. Anthony I'm adjusting to more country life. I'm so grateful to be here and am excited for our future together in the parish. I have a lot to learn and I hope that you will help me to see the way forward. I have resumed celebrating daily Mass from Tuesday to Friday at 7:45 am. Feel free to come over to the office afterward for a cup of coffee. You can note on the first page of the bulletin that we'll have adoration and confession at various times of the week. Even if you don't have a need for confession feel free to come and talk about some matter for 5-10 minutes. It's great to be here. Last night I worked in our parish chicken booth and then walked around the arena utterly amazed at all the people. May God Bless us and all our visitors during these days of the 4th of July and the St. Paul Rodeo. I look forward to meeting all of you, learning your stories and your names, and growing together in the freedom of Christ. I hope to have some listening sessions to hear your needs, concerns and hopes for the parish. If you are interested in hosting a listening session at your home, with 8-10 people, please call the parish offices. We will also have some sessions here at the parish offices. Stay tuned!

In Christ,

Fr. Baier
